

DATE:30-09-2025

THE ART GALLERY COLLECTION

ABOUT ART GALLERY

An art gallery is a sanctuary of curated creativity, where silent halls and stark white walls allow the artwork to command attention. Visitors wander through rooms, each a different world, from the chaotic splash of abstract expressionism to the stoic gaze of a classical portrait. It's a space for quiet reflection, where color, texture, and form communicate across centuries.

THE ART

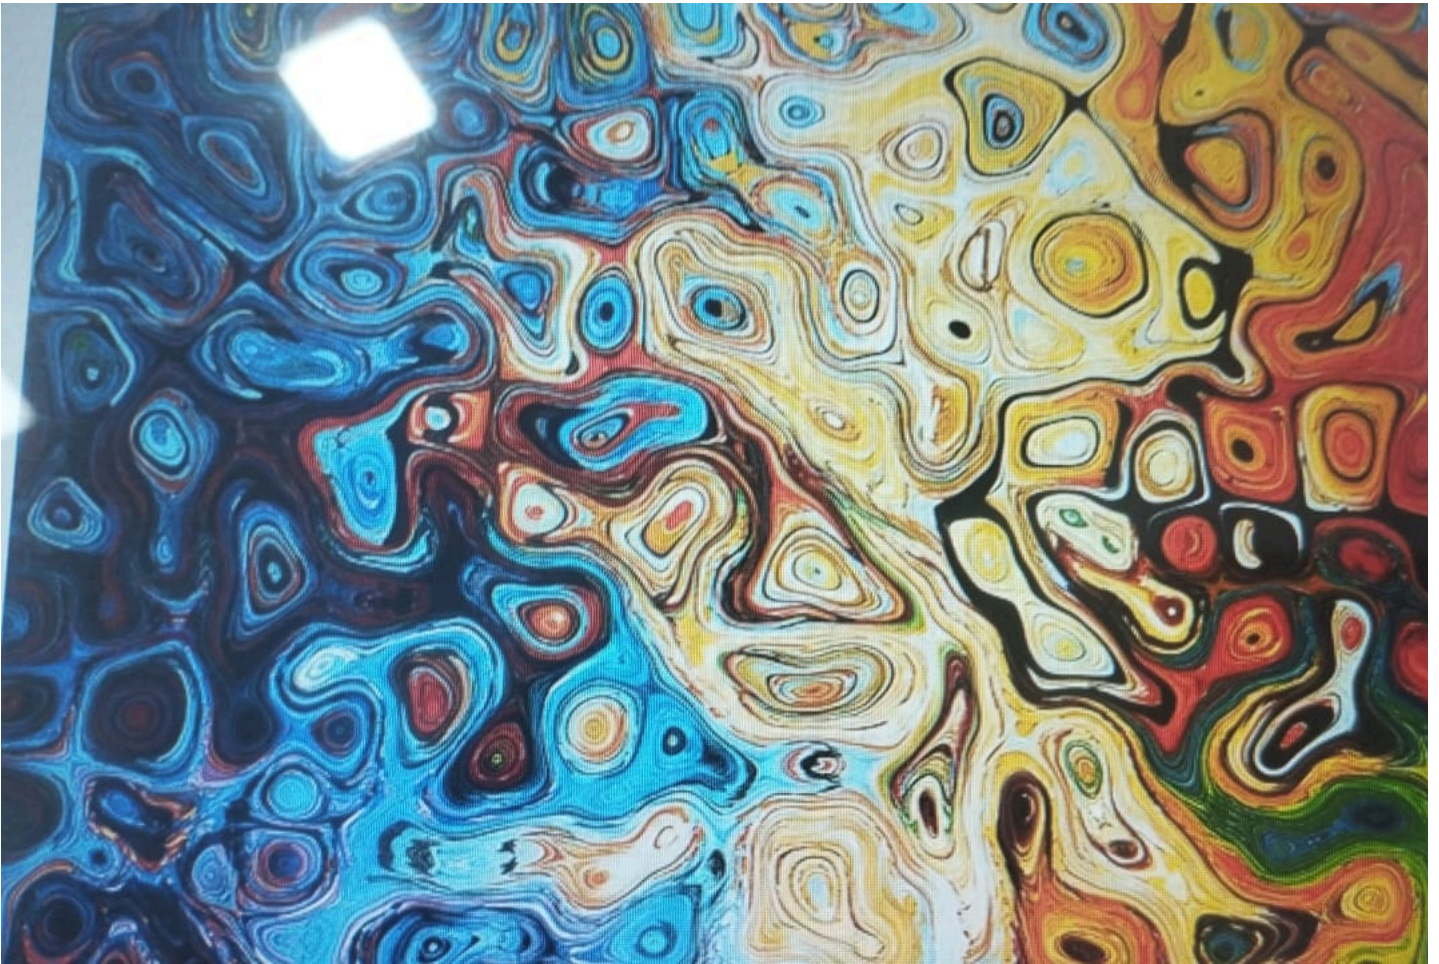

1. The Birth of Venus

Artist: Sandro Botticelli An Italian painter of the Early Renaissance, Botticelli is celebrated for his graceful and mythological paintings. The Birth of Venus, depicting the goddess of love emerging from the sea, is a landmark of Renaissance art, known for its elegant composition and poetic quality.

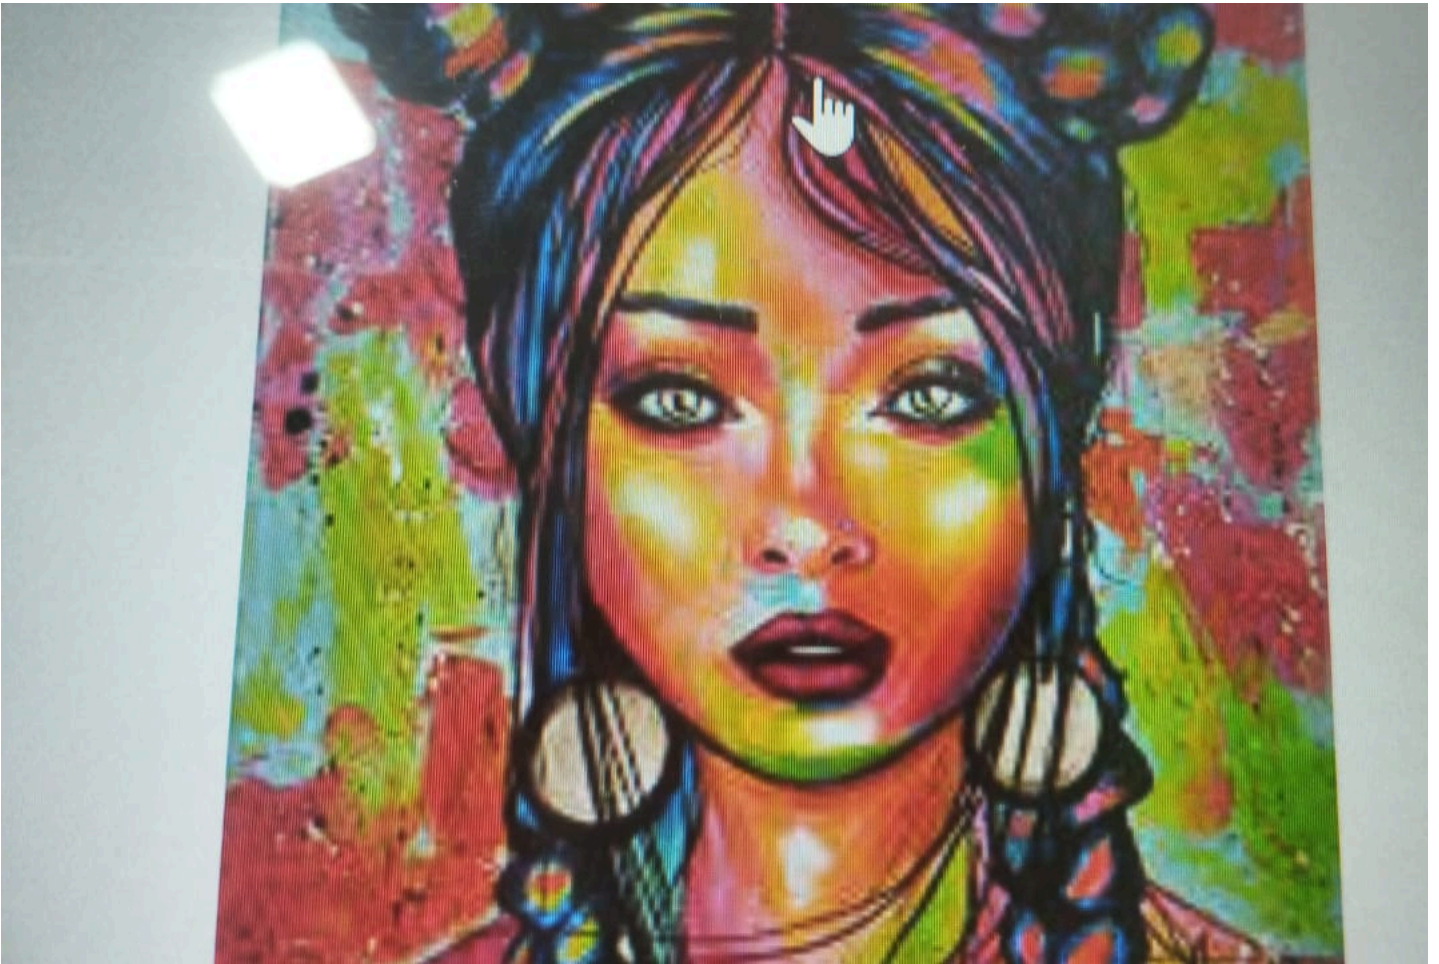

2. American Gothic

Artist: Grant Wood An American painter and a leading figure in the Regionalist art movement, Grant Wood is famous for his paintings of the rural American Midwest. American Gothic, depicting a stoic farmer and his daughter, has become one of the most iconic and parodied images in 20th-century American art.

3. Las Meninas (The Maids of Honour)

Artist: Diego Velázquez The leading artist of the Spanish Golden Age, Diego Velázquez was the court painter for King Philip IV. Las Meninas is his undisputed masterpiece, a complex and enigmatic portrait of the Spanish royal family and their attendants that continues to challenge art historians with its questions about reality and illusion.

4. Impression, Sunrise

Artist: Claude Monet A founder of French Impressionist painting, Claude Monet was dedicated to capturing the fleeting effects of light and atmosphere. His painting Impression, Sunrise not only showcases his revolutionary style but also gave the entire Impressionist movement its name.

5. No. 5, 1948

Artist: Jackson Pollock A major figure in the Abstract Expressionist movement, American painter Jackson Pollock pioneered the "drip technique," pouring and dripping paint onto unprimed canvases. No. 5, 1948 is a prime example of his energetic and layered "action paintings," which revolutionized the art world.

Painting Name	Year
The Birth of Venus	1519
American Gothic	1889
Las Meninas (The Maids of Honour)	1498
Impression, Sunrise	1512
No. 5, 1948	1665

THANK YOU